

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Contemporary spy drama Berlin Station returns to Super Channel for season two

Monday, October 23 at 9 p.m. ET

Ashley Judd and Keke Palmer join the cast

EDMONTON (Aug 30, 2017) – Super Channel is pleased to announce that contemporary spy drama Berlin Station will return for a second season on Monday, October 23 at 9 p.m. ET (SC1). Each hour-long episode of the ten-part second season will also be available to viewers on Super Channel On Demand the day following its weekly linear broadcast.

Viewers can catch up on all the intrigue and drama of season one currently available on Super Channel On Demand.

Season two of Berlin Station opens in the thick of a new world order that has taken root and is steadily deepening. In the wake of the far right tide sweeping across continental Europe, Germany finds itself on the precipice of a pivotal election.

Season two stars Richard Armitage as Daniel Miller, Rhys Ifans as Hector Dejean, Richard Jenkins as Steven Frost, Leland Orser as Robert Kirsch and Michelle Forbes as Valerie Edwards. New to the cast this season are Ashley Judd (Twin Peaks, Insurgent) as the new

Chief of Station, BB Yates, and Keke Palmer (Scream Queens) as young case officer April Lewis.

Season two was filmed in Berlin, Spain, Norway and Switzerland.

The series is created and executive produced by Olen Steinhauer (author: "The Tourist", "All the Old Knives", "The Cairo Affair"). Bradford Winters (Dig, The Americans, Boss, Oz) serves as executive producer and showrunner. Academy Award® winner Eric Roth (Forrest Gump, The Curious Case of Benjamin Button, House of Cards), along with Steve Golin, Kerry Kohansky-Roberts, Keith Redmon and Luke Rivett from Anonymous Content (True Detective, The Knick, Mr. Robot) also executive produce. The series is produced by Paramount Television and Anonymous Content.
