

Entertainment Network

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Secrets in the Ice, a new six-part factual series exposing dark secrets, forgotten treasures and lost relics from some of the coldest places on Earth, premieres on Super Channel Fuse

January 5 at 8 p.m. ET

EDMONTON (December 16, 2020) – Mysterious frozen lakes filled with bones, mummified bodies hanging from inside a glacier, and a 30,000-year-old virus frozen in ice brought back to life in a laboratory. These strange mysteries and more are exposed in Secrets in the Ice, a new unscripted series from Toronto based Shark Teeth Films, premiering Tuesday, January 5 at 8 p.m. ET on Super Channel Fuse.

Each hour-long episode of the six-part, first season will also be available on Super Channel On Demand the day following its weekly linear broadcast.

To view the trailer for Secrets in the Ice, visit:

<https://www.superchannel.ca/show/77817098/secrets-in-the-ice>

Using state of the art archaeological technologies and cutting-edge CGI animation, Secrets in the Ice spotlights the mysteries that have been locked away in icy tombs all over the world for centuries. At the base of a massive glacier in Southern Greenland, Danish archeologists have discovered the remains of an ancient stone hut. Was this site the home to a Viking seer practicing black magic? In Siberia, archeologists have excavated a mummy with fantastical tattoos against the many warnings of locals. Have they uncovered buried treasure, or unleashed an ancient curse?

Entertainment Network

From frozen remains of woolly mammoths and human remains on the peaks of Mount Everest, to buried underground military stations and enormous craters hidden beneath glaciers, Secrets in the Ice reveals the mysteries in some of the most daunting, frozen places on Earth.

Secrets in the Ice is produced for Science Channel in the US by Shark Teeth Films. For Shark Teeth Films, Adrian Carter, Tom Mudd and Paul Taylor are executive producers. For Science Channel, Neil Laird is executive producer and Andrew Lessner is producer. The series is co-financed and distributed globally by Boat Rocker Studios.

About Super Channel Entertainment Network

Super Channel is a national pay television network, offering subscribers exceptional entertainment value, uncut and commercial-free, with four diverse channels – Super Channel Fuse, Super Channel Heart & Home, Super Channel Vault and GINX Esports TV Canada – plus, access to Super Channel On Demand where available by service provider.

Super Channel's mission is to entertain and engage Canadian audiences by providing a unique and exclusive entertainment experience. With a core foundation of integrity and accountability, we dedicate ourselves to implementing innovative programming strategies and unparalleled teamwork that provides viewers with exceptional value and variety.

Super Channel is owned by Allarco Entertainment 2008 Inc., an Edmonton-based media company.

For a list of service providers, please visit: superchannel.ca/subscribe

Connect with Super Channel:

www.superchannel.ca
Super Channel on Facebook
Super Channel on Twitter

Media Contact:

Kim Ball
Director, Executive Director, Communications & Regional Outreach
kim.ball@superchannel.ca